HISTORY OF THE TICATS

On November 3, 1869, in a room above George Lee's Fruit Store, the Hamilton Football Club was formed. Hamilton football teams have won the Grey Cup in every decade of the 20th century, a feat matched in professional sports by only one other franchise, the Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League.

In 1908, the Tigers won the Dominion championship, a year before the Grey Cup was presented. Prior to World War II, Hamilton's football team was known as the Tigers. The colours of yellow and black were adopted. The only time that Hamilton football was interrupted as a spectator sport was during the First and Second World Wars.

Following World War II, the Tigers began competition again. At the same time, a new group in the city was formed and they became known as the Wildcats. The competition for fan participation was so great that both teams were unable to operate on a sound financial basis. It was decided that the two clubs should amalgamate and form one representative team for Hamilton.

The present name, Tiger-Cats, and what is known as the modern era of football started in 1950. General manager and head coach Carl Voyles recruited Vince Mazza, Edgar Jones, Jack Carpenter, Ralph Sazio, Bill Gregus, Stan Heath and Vince Scott to form the nucleus of a solid football team. The pinnacle of Voyles' career was reached in 1953 when the Tiger-Cats appeared in the Grey Cup and defeated Winnipeg.

With the retirement of Voyles at the end of the 1955 season, a new head coach, Jim Trimble, and new general manager, J.G. Gaudaur, were appointed. Trimble and Gaudaur continued Hamilton's winning ways, appearing in five Grey Cup games in 1957, 1958, 1959, 1961, and 1962, all against Winnipeg. The Tiger-Cats won the 1957 game 32-7 on the strength of two touchdowns by Cookie Gilchrist.

Bernie Faloney became the first Tiger-Cat to win the CFL's Most Outstanding Player award in 1961.

Sazio was named the head coach in 1963 when Trimble moved to Montreal. Hamilton's winning ways continued and Sazio had an outstanding five years as head coach, appearing in the Grey Cup game four times and winning three championships in 1963, 1965 and 1967.

Jerry Williams was appointed head coach in 1972 and set a team win-loss record of 11-3, going on to win the Grey Cup against Saskatchewan 13-10 in Hamilton's Ivor Wynne Stadium. Quarterback

HISTORY OF THE TICATS

Chuck Ealey was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Garney Henley was the CFL's Most Outstanding Player that year.

The Tiger-Cats would not make the title game again until 1980, running into an Edmonton team that was in the middle of its five-year Grey Cup dynasty. The Tiger-Cats fell 48-10.

The Tiger-Cats overcame early-season adversity and won the East Championship in 1984, only to fall to Winnipeg 47-17 in the final. Hamilton's Grey Cup appearance was the team's 13th since its inception in 1950.

In 1985 the team recorded its best record since 1982 and finished first in the Eastern Division. The Tiger-Cats set two CFL records with 46 interceptions in a single season and 786 yards on interception returns. Hamilton succumbed to B.C. in the Grey Cup by a 37-24 count.

The Tiger-Cats won the championship for the seventh time in modern history with a convincing 39-15 win over Edmonton the following season. The Tiger-Cats played in the first regular-season overtime game in CFL history September 14, 1986 against Saskatchewan. The game ended in a 21-21 tie.

In 1989, The Tiger-Cats set team records with 12 wins and 519 points scored. Hamilton and Saskatchewan played in the Grey Cup game at Toronto's SkyDome (renamed Rogers Centre) which the Roughriders won 43-40. Rocky DiPietro became the CFL career leader with 655 pass receptions.

John Gregory coached the Tiger-Cats to an 11-7 record in 1992 and second place in the Eastern Division. In the East Championship, Hamilton visited Winnipeg and lost 59-11. The Tiger-Cats would lose again to Winnipeg in the same game the following season 20-19.

It marked the beginning of a period of futility for Tiger-Cats, the lowest point being in 1997 when the team finished with a record of 2-16. Ron Lancaster was named head coach and director of football operations after the season, the first step in what was to become a major turnaround in Steeltown.

In 1998, the Tiger-Cats rebounded from one of their worst seasons to their best regular season ever, posting the second greatest turnaround in CFL history in the process. The Tiger-Cats had a 21-point improvement to a 12-5-1 record.

HISTORY OF THE TICATS

The East Championship was played at Ivor Wynne Stadium for the first time since 1989 and the team did not disappoint the home fans, with a thrilling 22-20 win over Montreal. Paul Osbaldiston kicked a 54-yard field goal with no time left, tying the CFL playoff record for the longest field goal, to send the Tiger-Cats to Winnipeg for the team's first Grey Cup appearance since 1989. Hamilton lost 26-24 to Calgary on a 35-yard field goal by Mark McLoughlin with no time remaining.

The Tiger-Cats finished second in the Eastern Division with an 11-7 record, two points behind Montreal the following season. The Tiger-Cats defeated Montreal 27-26 in the East Championship at Percival Molson Stadium in Montreal. Finally, after a 13-year drought, the Tiger-Cats won the Grey Cup 32-21 over Calgary at B.C. Place Stadium in Vancouver. Danny McManus was named the league's Most Outstanding Player.

In 2003, the Tiger-Cats suffered through a 1-17 season, the worst in franchise history, as the club went into receivership. In October, the Tiger-Cats were purchased by Bob Young.

Young hired local McMaster Marauders coach Greg Marshall and the 2004 Tiger-Cats finished the season 9-8-1 and clinched a playoff berth before bowing out in the East Semifinal 24-6 to Toronto. Marshall was named CFL Coach of the Year for the team's turnaround.

During the 2004 season the Tiger-Cats drew over 250,000 fans to Ivor Wynne Stadium for the first time in the illustrious 135-year history.
